Dear Dick:

Many thanks for setting up the luncheon with Bill Colby and your CIA colleagues last week. I know that my Army colleagues and I gained from the meeting and interchange. I would find it advantageous to sit with you and LTG Danny Graham some time in the future to pursue further some of the subjects which we touched on but could not develop in the limited time that was available.

Sincerely,
